The Carnegie Donation.—The following paper, read by W. B. Taylor, was adopted without discussion, with only a few dissenting votes:

Whereas the action of our College of Bishops, acting as a Board of Visitors, vetoing the acceptance of the so-called million-dollar gift to the Medical Department of Vanderbilt University by Mr. Carnegie, has been criticized in certain quarters; and whereas four members of the Board of Trust, at the annual meeting held in June, 1913, entered their protest against the acceptance of said proposed gift; and whereas it has been claimed by certain parties that neither the veto of the bishops nor the protest of the minority members of the Board of Trust represent the sentiments and judgment of the Church generally; therefore be it Resolved: 1. That while we regret that the terms of the said gift as set forth by Mr. Carnegie were such that it could not be accepted with honor, we do hereby heartily indorse both the bishops' veto and the protest of the minority of the Board of Trust.

2. That we hereby express our hearty agreement with the sentiments and position of our bishops as expressed in their veto and message to the Church at large, and of the minority of the Board of Trust as expressed in their protest.

3. That we indorse the editors of the Christian Advocate and Midland Methodist for speaking out in no uncertain terms on this subject of such vital importance.

4. That we hereby pledge our sympathy and support to our bishops and the minority members of the Board of Trust in the discharge of their duties in this and the whole Vanderbilt matter, praying that all may be done in brotherly kindness and in love.

W. T. HAGGARD,
R. J. CRAIG,

W. B. TAYLOR.

Public Worship.—R. J. Craig read, and the Conference adopted, the following preamble and resolution:

Whereas there is not only a need of spiritual food offered us through the ministry of the Word, but an earnest desire for the same on the part of the visitors, the community, and the members of the Conference; and whereas it is only once a year that such a gathering as this Conference makes this great privilege possible for some of us; therefore be it

REPORTS ADOPTED.

TEMPERANCE.

We, your Committee on Temperance, note with commendable pride the stand our illustrious founder, Mr. Wesley, took on the liquor traffic. In that day it was not so popular to attack this great evil, but Mr. Wesley threw all of his wonderful power and influence against it. No sin escaped his withering condemnation. He declared in a great sermon that it was driving Her Majesty's subjects to hell in droves like sheep, and that the money obtained by its sale was blood money. His sons in the gospel from that day until this have been deeply imbued with the spirit and courage of their great founder and leader. The Methodist preachers from the organization of our Church until this day have been outspoken and have preached against this great evil. Until a few years ago we had not formulated such strong resolutions against it as prevail now. Public sentiment was not so strong and outspoken as it is to-day. For quite a number of years our Conferences have passed strong condemnatory resolutions against this horrible evil. At a session of the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church Dr. A. B. Leonard drafted and read a report on the whisky traffic. In that strong paper we find these words: "It can never be licensed without sin." These words have since resounded wherever Methodism is known. Since it cannot be licensed without sin, it logically follows that Christian people cannot indorse and support it without receiving just condemnation. In the early history of the Methodist movement the eloquent and able William E. M. Punshon, of England, declared as a representative of the Methodists: "We have no compromise to make with rum." So we boldly declare to-day that we cannot, must not, and will not compromise with liquor and its defenders. Many are crying that we should have peace in our political ranks. Let it be declared and fully understood that we will never compromise with the whisky traffic and its defenders. In the language of our illustrious leader who fell in defense of the cause: "Since it will not be reformed, it must be destroyed."

We call your special attention to the fact that it is always on the wrong side of every public question, and that it never alleviates pain or sorrow, supplies any human need, or adds nobility to any character. It is now making its last stand in the great cities, and we pray and hope that it will not have an abiding place in our land. We note with pleasure and great approval the stand that President Wilson and wife, Vice President Marshall and wife, Secretary of State William J. Bryan and wife, and Secretary of the Navy Daniels have taken in favor of total abstinence, and we recommend their example to all our people, especially, to the young men of our nation.

We indorse the temperance laws on the statute books of our State and nation and long for the time to come when these statutes will be enforced everywhere. We recognize the need of additional legislation in our State for the better enforcement of our present laws and heartily recommend their passage by the extra session of the legislature which will convene Monday, October 13. We recognize the great work that has been done and is being done by the Anti-Saloon League, the W. C. T. U., and other temperance organizations; but the great responsibility which is resting on us all is the way we use the ballot. We should exercise wisdom in its use and be certain of the character and kind of men whom we send to legislate for us. No man is fit to sit in the legislative halls who does not have that high regard for the majesty of the law and for its enforcement which has been recognized since the foundation of our government.

We look with favor upon the forward movement for law enforcement now being waged by the Anti-Saloon League and the W. C. T. U., believing that much good will result therefrom. We point with pride to the action of our Governor and legislators who have been using their power and influence, irrespective of party affiliation, for the passage of law enforcement measures, and pray that their efforts may be crowned with success during the coming week.

Very respectfully submitted.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

We are glad to report that our Publishing House is making a handsome profit on an increasing business. We would call attention to the large number of good books which contain the best thought of great Christian scholars, and which are sold, many of them, for a very small price—some of them for 50 cents. Books on the devotional and experimental phases of the Christian life, such as Begbie's "Twice-Born Men" and many others, cannot but enrich our lives.

We would call especial attention to a book entitled "The Proof of the Pudding," by our worthy brother, Rev. John H. Nichols. This book should be read by all our preachers and people. A distinguished scholar said: "If any life should be written as it has been lived, it would make one of the most interesting books ever written." "The Proof of the Pudding" is a transcript of a real life, and is most interesting and instructive.

Our Review is better than it has ever been, and ought to be in every home in the Conference. We commend our Book Editor for his efforts to increase the power and influence of this journal.

The Christian Advocate, our general organ, is a religious newspaper of the highest type, ably edited, and its pages are filled with the matter our people need to know. We deeply deplore the fact that it is not in every home in the Church. We should be ashamed of its pitifully limited circulation when we think of what it should be. The editor reports a subscription list of only sixteen thousand, when it should have and deserves to have fifty thousand. We urge more vigorous efforts to so increase its circulation that it will not only reach a self-sustaining basis, but also become a source of revenue to the Publishing House.

The Midland Methodist, our Conference organ, has had a large increase in its circulation the past year. It continues to maintain a high place among the Conference organs of the Church. It has done in the past and is now doing valiant service in the great struggle for righteousness and order against lawlessness and anarchy through which we are passing. Let us strive for a still larger circulation the coming year.

We wish to commend the clean, neat, and orderly arrangement in which our Sunday school periodicals are gotten out, and we find in them wholesome and spiritual comment. We urge all our Sunday schools to use and study our own literature and to see that there is a sufficient supply on hand; and, further, that, as far as it is possible, our graded literature and helps be used among the classes of the children, realizing that systematic and orderly study must bring the ripest fruit in the hearts of our children. We wish to thank Dr. E. B. Chappell for his efficient service in securing the best and sanest workers employed in writing in the different departments and to pledge our prayers and loyalty to his support.

BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

The Board of Church Extension has entered upon the thirty-second year of its activities, having done a truly remarkable work and amply justifying the wisdom of its organizers.

More than half of all the churches and parsonages in our connection have been aided either by the General or Conference Boards.

The General Board loan fund was increased last year by over $66,000, making a total of a little more than a half million. Conference loan funds are multiplying both in numbers and in capital, but our needs are still far in excess of our resources. We therefore call upon our pastors and people to aid our General Secretary in his labors to raise the amount of our loan fund to one million dollars. This can be done by sending for and distributing the literature of the Board, which will be furnished free upon application to the General Office; also by preaching special sermons on this subject and calling the attention of our people to our memorial and annuity loan funds. An investment in either of these assures one of the benefits of the investment while living and also of creating a fund which does perpetual good after he has gone.

Our Tennessee Conference Loan Fund now amounts to $1,250, and we devoutly trust that some of our people may see fit to increase this sum by special gifts and bequests. The General Board increased the assessment for Church extension $10,000 at their last meeting, the increase upon the Tennessee Conference being $345. Our assessment, therefore, for 1913-14 is $9,488, which has been apportioned to the several districts as follows:

SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

The Sunday School Board of our Conference beg leave to submit the following report:

1. We are again pleased to note the increase in the circulation of our Sunday school literature. The Sunday School Editor's report, dated April 1, 1913, shows a circulation at that time of 1,808,678 of the periodicals based upon the Uniform Lessons and a circulation of 123,607 of the Graded Lessons, making a grand total of 1,932,285. The high quality of the Sunday school literature of our Church is unsurpassed by that of any other denomination, and is being received and used by our people more extensively and more eagerly than ever before. The work being done in our Sunday schools as a result of the use of this literature is improving steadily, and we feel sure that our greatest desire—viz., the turning of the hearts of our boys and girls to Christ and developing them into active Christian workers—is being realized more fully to-day than ever before. We again wish to emphasize the fact that our Publishing House, through its Department of Sunday School Supplies, is prepared to furnish all of the best and latest helps for the carrying on of the Sunday school work, and we urge our Sunday school workers to write this department for information whenever needing it.

2. We want to emphasize again the very great importance of having trained teachers for our Sunday schools, for upon that their efficiency hinges. Those schools that do not have teacher-training classes should organize them at once, enroll them with the Superintendent of Teacher-Training, get the literature needed, and stress the point to have each teacher complete the entire course. Any presiding elder or pastor who desires to hold an institute for training workers is guaranteed the co-operation of the Sunday School Board in helping to make necessary arrangements. The Summer Conference for Young People, held at Ovoca, offers through its Sunday school program a rich opportunity to pastors, superintendents, and teachers to enlighten themselves on this phase of Christian endeavor, and we earnestly urge them to avail themselves of it so far as practicable.

3. We are pleased to note the increasing interest in the organizing of Wesley Bible Classes, and from the Superintendent of the Wesley Bible Class Department we learn that over three thousand classes, with a membership of eighty thousand men and women, have enrolled in the Wesley Bible Class Department. We regret, however, that there are so few of these classes in our own Conference, and trust that our pastors and superintendents will be more active along this line. We wish to set as our aim for 1914 the organization and enrollment of five hundred classes in the Tennessee Conference.

4. We are compelled to record the fact, as humiliating as it is, that the Children's Day offerings for this year have fallen $85.41 behind last year. We do not know the reason for this decrease, but we fear that our people do not realize the great need of these offerings for the prosecution of our work, otherwise these amounts would have been much greater. We urge that we redouble our efforts during the next year and hope that every Sunday school within the bounds of the Conference will observe the day, take the offering as prescribed by the Discipline, and forward promptly the amount to the General Treasurer. For the amounts paid by each district, see Treasurer's report.

5. We recommend the election of Rev. W. H. Johnston to fill the vacancy in the Sunday School Board occasioned by the death of Rev. Jerome Winford.

6. We recommend that Dr. W. M. Green be appointed Sunday School Field Secretary.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

Your American Bible Society Board beg leave to report that there has been a deeper interest manifested in this great cause in some of the districts this year than heretofore, while in other sections of the Conference there seems to be a decline, at least in the efforts to raise money. It affords us great pleasure to report that in the Franklin District every charge has raised something for the Bible cause this year. In the Nashville District, the largest in the Conference (twenty-four charges), only three failed to pay something. This district raised a larger amount than any other district. Clarksville District raised (ten charges reporting), $39.70; Columbia District (twelve charges reporting), $47.18; Dickson District (nine charges reporting), $39.03; Fayetteville District (thirteen charges reporting), $54.43; Franklin District (every charge reporting), $44.28; Gallatin District (eleven charges reporting), $55.75; Lawrenceburg District (five charges reporting), $19.21; Lebanon District (six charges reporting), $11.76; Murfreesboro District (eleven charges reporting), $40.73; Nashville District (twenty-one charges reporting), $240.56. Total, $592.63.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

We, your Committee on District Conference Records, submit the following report:

We have had the records of each district before us, and, after carefully examining them, we find that they are practically free from errors. We especially commend those records that are typewritten, and recommend that, as the old records are filled up, the loose-leaf typewritten records be used by all the District Secretaries.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

We, your Committee on Sabbath Observance, submit the following report:

In these days, when people are almost running wild for the increase of property and luxury and pleasure, the statutes of God are subordinated to man's gratification. Whatever stands in the way to restrain these hurtful passions must, in the estimation of the more thoughtless, be thrown aside as an infringement on man's liberty. The old-fashioned observance of the Sabbath day of our fathers is often contemptuously ignored by those bent upon making it a day of profit or pleasure. The command of God to "remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy" is too often disregarded; but, instead, men often only remember it as a day for convenient engagements to transact some business in which the public does not participate. The injunction, "Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work: but the seventh is the sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work," is often utterly ignored. In some parts of our country not only are freight and passenger trains run on Sunday—which we have gotten used to—but hands employed in the construction of roads are kept busy all the day. In some of our towns the store doors swing open easily, and goods are quietly sold behind closed shutters. Sunday excursions and Sunday picnics are openly advertised in the daily papers, and the young and thoughtless are led to the desecration of the day. We vigorously condemn Sunday ball games and Sunday theaters. We protest against the opening of State and County Fairs on Sunday, even under the name of “sacred concerts” and the specious plea that it is done in sympathetic kindness for the benefit of those who, they argue, cannot attend on any other day; yet in their kind sympathy they do not omit the collection of gate fees which go into the coffers of the Association. We protest against all Sunday pay lectures and all manner of commercial and business transactions for personal gain or ends on this holy day.

That all these desecrations of the Sabbath day may be checked, we urge our preachers to preach upon the observance of the Sabbath until this demoralizing wickedness shall be discontinued. From our pulpits and in our Sunday schools let us teach not only the young but all our people that

“A Sabbath well spent brings a week of content
And joy for the toils of the morrow;
But a Sabbath profaned, whatsoe’er may be gained,
Is a certain forerunner of sorrow.”

Let us call the attention of all the people to the words of the prophet Isaiah: “If thou turn away thy foot from the sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on my holy day; and call the sabbath a delight, the holy of the Lord, honorable; and shalt honor him, not doing thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking thine own words: then shalt thou delight thyself in the Lord; and I will cause thee to ride upon the high places of the earth, and feed thee with the heritage of Jacob, thy father: for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.”

Respectfully submitted.

O. H. LANE, Secretary.

CHURCH PROPERTY.

We, your Committee on Church Property, submit the following report:

We learn that eleven houses of worship and three parsonages have been built during the past year. We strongly recommend that this good work be carried on until every district shall be fully supplied with both churches and parsonages, comfortable, well located, and substantially furnished. With a healthy increase in the value of Church property during the year in both churches and parsonages, we make the following recommendations:

1. That the percentage of insurance be increased to at least fifty per cent of the property value. As the records now show, hardly forty per cent of the property value is carried.

2. We suggest that the presiding elders, as well as preachers and laymen, see that all of the Church property is well insured; that the “trust clause” be included in all deeds to Church property, as required by the Discipline; that great care be exercised in selecting plans, locations, and designs for church buildings, as recommended by your committee to the last Annual Conference; and more especially do we recommend that more commodious and comfortable parsonages be built throughout the entire Conference hereafter; and, furthermore, we suggest and insist that in building new churches hereafter more commodious Sunday school rooms in every instance be provided for.

Respectfully submitted.

EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

The Epworth League situation of the Tennessee Conference presents a better outlook than it has for years. There has been a remarkable increase in the number of Chapters and membership. Interest has been so thoroughly aroused in the young laity of the Church that time, energy, and wisdom are being used to secure better preparation for the task of training young people for specific Church work. They have received the call, and are desirous of becoming workmen that need not be ashamed.

At the Ovoca Conference, in July, reports showed a splendid increase in the number of Chapters, a large increase in subscriptions to the Epworth Era, while the Cuba Special offering was more than doubled.

The plans of the Conference this year are well defined, and the coöperation of pastor and young people is earnestly and cordially solicited. The work is planned for quarterly practice as follows: First quarter, July 1 to October 1, Culture and Recreation; second quarter, October 1 to January 1, Mission Study and Contribution; third quarter, January 1 to April 1, Systematic Bible Study; fourth quarter, April 1 to July 1, Personal Evangelism.

The financial budget adopted is as follows: For Cuba Special, $1,000; for Methodist Training School, $500; for Ovoca Administration Building, $800; for Central Office maintenance, $250; for State League extension, $125.

It is believed that the above plans, if consistently followed, will stimulate interest and enthusiasm. It is planned to extend the work as far around the Conference as is practicable.

District Secretaries have been elected in all districts with but few exceptions, and assistance in organization can be rendered Churches in the most remote parts of the Conference by an appeal to these District Secretaries or the President of the Conference Epworth Leagues.

It is impossible to estimate the value of mission study in Epworth Leagues. It serves as a means of increasing the number of young people to decide for definite life work. The courses of study offered for this year are: Foreign, "Mexico To-Day," by Dr. G. B. Winton; home, "Immigrant Forces," by Dr. William P. Shriver.

The Epworth Era, in its monthly edition and the splendid discussion of the weekly topics, is an indispensable asset to the Chapter. Its circulation shows a large increase in the Conference over last year.

The Summer Conference for Christian Workers, which comprises the practical training of the laity of the Sunday school, missionary societies, and Epworth Leagues, is doing a valuable service in the equipping of young men and women for successful League work. Notable instances could be related of young people assuming responsibilities in their home Churches after the Conference who would not have considered a proposition of such a character before.

The laity of the Church are erecting a permanent building at Ovoca since the decision to locate there. Every one who contributes to the erection of this building is making an investment in which the dividends will be realized in the lives of trained workers for Christ.

The members of the Epworth League Board, District Secretaries, and the Presidents of all Epworth Leagues are called together in Nashville on December 29 and 30 to discuss Epworth League plans and methods and to be instructed by an institute in the various phases of the League work. By these means untold service can be rendered to the active League and the more isolated Church by the delegates. Every Chapter should be represented either by a President or some suitable substitute.

The Junior League work has been constitutionally placed under the supervision of the First Vice President of the Senior League. This means a committee of four for the First Vice President instead of three, as heretofore, and an added responsibility, but a great privilege and opportunity for efficient service for the Master.

This advance in our work clearly demonstrates that the Church is realizing the value of the Epworth League as our best means of training our young people in Christian character and service. The League is not dead in the Tennessee Conference, but is growing in power and influence every week.

We recommend the appointment of John Durrett to take the place of W. M. McClearen, transferred, on the Board.

A. J. MORGAN, Secretary.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

GENERAL BOARD OF EDUCATION.

It is gratifying to note the progress of the work under the control of the General Board of Education as represented by the General Secretary, Dr. Stonewall Anderson, who appeared before us, and whom we heard with pleasure. A number of the Church schools have succeeded in raising large amounts of money and subscriptions for the purpose of enlarging their plants and doing more efficient work. We note with pleasure that the amount contributed for the purposes of education upon the assessment plan for the past year was the largest in the history of the Church. We appreciate what the General Board is doing in giving out educational information by issuing the Bulletin and the leaflets and pamphlets for free distribution, thus touching every phase of our educational work.

THE DEPARTMENT OF MINISTERIAL SUPPLY AND TRAINING.

We are aware that the need for more men and better-trained men for the ministry has never been greater than it is now, and we give our hearty indorsement to the Department of Ministerial Supply and Training in their efforts to secure an adequate supply of capable men for the ministry. We look with alarm upon the fact that there are over nine hundred pastoral charges filled by supplies, and several hundred men are needed for the mission work.

We call your attention to the fact that, while seventeen years is the average age at which our young men feel the call to preach, they do not enter the ministry until they are thirty; and, notwithstanding this lapse of thirteen years, only one-half of these ever enter college, less than one-third take a college course, and eighty-five per cent have no theological training whatever.

In this connection we wish the pastors of our Conference to note that one of the chief purposes of your Board of Education is to aid in developing strong young men for the ministry. We urge them to notify your Board of such young men in their charges, and to tell these men about the works of the Board. We believe that this is our greatest work, and we beg for any help along this line.

We recommend the observance of Vocational Day in our Sunday schools, and we emphasize the importance of the sermon on the claim of the ministry (Discipline, paragraph 140).

BIBLICAL DEPARTMENT AT VANDERBILT.

It is now demanded that a man be carefully trained for efficient service in his calling, whether it be law, medicine, teaching, or farming, if he wishes to make the most of his opportunities. This is just as true of the ministry as of any other calling. The one and only purpose of the Biblical Department of Vanderbilt University is to train men for the effective service in the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. We commend the great work that it is doing, and we urge our young preachers to take advantage of the great opportunities offered by this department.

BIBLICAL INSTITUTE.

We are highly gratified at the success of the Biblical Institute held at Vanderbilt University. The high-water mark of its attendance this last summer proves that it fills a much-felt need of the Church. As the man called to the ministry can do more effective work by preparing himself, so can the man in the work make his ministry more efficient by availing himself of this opportunity for gaining information and inspiration. We urge upon all our preachers to attend the Institute whenever they can possibly do so.

MID-YEAR MEETING.

The mid-year meeting of your Board was held in Shelbyville. This was the second of its kind, and fully justified the conviction that a mid-year meeting is necessary for the larger work that the Board is projecting. A general invitation was extended to the presiding elders to be present, and it was possible for two of them, Brothers Gregory and Stowe, to attend. They contributed so much to the success of the meeting by their helpful suggestions that it was determined to urge them to be present at every mid-year meeting and to assist the Board in its work. At this meeting helpful addresses were made at the night session, and the day was taken up with the forming of plans for more effective work for the next Conference year and in making appropriations to students. In this connection the Board wishes to emphasize the importance of having all applications for financial assistance before the Board at its mid-year meeting. This is especially important. To postpone this matter till the meeting of the Annual Conference means late entrance into school, a matter which the Board wishes to discourage.

The Board selected representatives to visit, at the invitation of the pastors and presiding elders, those Churches that were likely to have a deficit on the collections and to render whatever assistance they could in securing the amounts in full.

The report of E. P. Anderson, who attended the Conference of Educational Secretaries at Dallas, Tex., was read and discussed; and it was decided that it was worth while to have your Board represented at all the meetings of the General Board of Education.

The people of Shelbyville were very kind and generous in their spirit of hospitality, and all who attended the meeting came away feeling that good had been accomplished locally and for the general cause.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Mr. W. R. Bourne, State High School Inspector, appeared before your Board and asked for the help of the pastors in strengthening our public elementary and secondary schools.

The purpose of education is not merely to gain information or to acquire skill. Its purpose should be much higher than this. It should use the search for knowledge to give clear perceptions of right and wrong, to fix desirable habits, and to set a character that may be relied upon. In this respect the object of Church and of school is much the same.

We therefore suggest that our pastors give more active support to the schools in their charges, that they pay frequent visits to these schools, that they urge their people to give better facilities for the training of their children, that they assist in the survey now being made of the rural school situation by making reports of conditions in the country and in the smaller towns, and that in any other way possible they co-operate with the school interests for social and for moral uplift.

MARTIN COLLEGE.

The reports from Martin College are very encouraging. This institution is still growing in numbers and efficiency and is extending its influence for all that is best.

Mr. Wynn and his splendid faculty are doing a great work, and we wish to commend them heartily for it.

The plans for the new building are progressing very satisfactorily. The citizens of Pulaski have already subscribed the promised $10,000, and the Church is responding splendidly with its part. This, with some other available funds, has brought the amount almost to the point at which it was agreed that work on the building would be begun.

The Board of Education has considered the communication of H. C. Merritt, Treasurer of the Clarksville Female Academy, which was referred to it by the Conference. The Tennessee Annual Conference has been informed that the property belonging to the Clarksville Female Academy has been sold by the trustees of that institution, and that the $800 worth of stock in the academy owned by the Conference has now to its credit the sum of $372, which is held subject to the order of the Conference. We recommend that the Conference hereby authorize the Board of Trustees of the Conference to receive and to receipt for the same. We further recommend that this money be turned over to the Treasurer of the Board of Trustees of Martin College, and be used in the erection of the new dormitory for which the Conference is now raising the funds.

We recommend that the assessment for education be again placed at $12,500, and that the funds collected be divided between the General Board of Education, the Conference Board of Education, and Martin College in substantially the same manner as during the present year.

The terms of the following trustees of Martin College have expired: George L. Beale, T. A. Kerley, T. C. Ragsdale, T. E. Daly, F. M. Massey. We recommend that they be reelected.

We also recommend the following appointments: C. R. Watkins, as a student at Yale; D. B. Beene, as an instructor in Ruskin Cave College; J. B. Spurlock, as a student in the Massey School; V. H. Rollins, as a student at Vanderbilt; J. E. McCulloch, as General Secretary of the American Interchurch College; E. P. Anderson, as Conference Secretary of Education; A. M. Trawick, as Secretary of the Student Department of the International Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association.

BOARD OF MISSIONS.

Report No. 1.

The Church has concluded the first period of the modern missionary enterprise. During this time all seas have been crossed, all continents explored, and every nation enterprised. It has been a period of great leaders and heroes, the story of whose heroism and adventure has stirred the imagination, quickened the conscience, and created a world-wide vision of service. More than this, the magnitude of the task has been estimated. The hundreds of millions of the unevangelized, together with the sin, ignorance, and superstition, century-strong and deep-rooted in institutional forms of religious and social life, relieved and embellished to some extent with virtue and truth, have become matters of common knowledge. The period of spectacular heroism and popular appeal to the imagination has passed. We have now reached the place where patient and systematic education and prosaic and unremitting toil alone will meet the needs of the hour. The rank and file of the Church must be educated until a strong missionary conscience has been created in all our laity. A large and well-trained army of missionaries must be sent to man our ever-widening fields. This is a formidable task challenging the faith, patience, and consecration of those to whom has come the open vision of the whitened harvest, but not too great when we recognize the commission and the promise: "Go ye into all the world," "All power is given unto me," "Lo, I am with you always."

In our Conference last year nine districts failed to raise the entire assessment for foreign and home missions, and but one reported both paid in full. This year six report a deficiency, and four report in full. The deficiencies in most cases are light, amounting to but a few dollars. This indicates a situation which, it seems to us, can, with consecrated action, be overcome. To this end we recommend no increase in assessment for the coming year and set our goal for missionary collections in full for the entire Conference. We believe this can be done, and for its accomplishment we recommend: (1) The holding of one or more institutes in each district early in the year, these institutes to be arranged by the presiding elder of the district with the coöperation of the Conference Missionary Secretary. (2)

The holding of an institute on every charge and, if possible, in every church, these local institutes to be arranged by the coöperation of the presiding elder and the pastor.

We urge the liberal use of missionary literature: (1) In the distribution of leaflets and tracts. (2) In the increased circulation of our missionary organ, the Voice. This excellent periodical in a membership of seventy-two thousand in our Conference has a circulation of but thirteen hundred, which is but one to every fifty-five members. This is far short of what it should be, and we recommend a concerted effort to raise the subscription list at least five hundred during the coming year. To this end we recommend that this number be apportioned to every district by the Executive Committee of the Board, and that a systematic campaign to secure these subscriptions be arranged and carried out by the coöperation of the Executive Committee and the several presiding elders.

We recommend the adoption of the every-member canvass and weekly payment of pledges in all our charges. The mission boards of the United States and Canada, representing fifty-four organizations, of which our General Board is one, have launched a plan for a united missionary campaign to be conducted this fall and winter in all cities of five thousand and over. We heartily commend this campaign and urge our pastors and laymen in the towns where these campaigns shall be held to coöperate.

We rejoice in the great success of our Second General Missionary Conference, held at Junaluska June 25-29, 1913. Its influence has been a decided inspiration to the whole Church, and we believe marks the beginning of an era of greater things.

By delaying the payment of our missionary contributions until the close of the year the General Board is often seriously embarrassed and compelled to borrow large sums of money on which it pays interest amounting to some $7,000 annually. We greatly deplore this loss and urge the payment of our assessments as early in the year as possible. The policy of the Board for the coming year, to which we pledge our renewed zeal and prayer, and in the accomplishment of which we solicit the hearty coöperation of all our pastors and laymen, is as follows: Our missionary assessment in full, a contribution from every member, an every-member canvass at the beginning of the year, a missionary institute on every district and every charge, the organization of every Sunday school into a missionary society, the organization of missionary study classes in every Church, the Missionary Voice in every home.

The Board recommends the appointment of J. J. Stowe as Conference Missionary Secretary. By conference with the laymen, we recommend the election of Prof. William Hughes as Conference lay leader. By agreement with the Sunday School Board and Board of Education, arrangements have been made for holding joint institutes in each district of the Conference, the details of which shall be worked out by an executive committee and the presiding elder of the district where such institute may be held.

We name the following brethren as our Evangelistic Committee for the ensuing year: J. A. Molloy, J. J. Stowe, B. T. Lannom, T. C. Ragsdale, and G. H. Detwiler.

We heartily indorse the Summer Conference for Christian Workers at Ovoca as our best means of training mission study leaders and inspiring our Church leaders with the new spirit of missions. We bespeak for it the continued interest of our brethren.

Report No. 2.

GALLOWAY MEMORIAL HOSPITAL.

Whereas the construction of the first building of the Galloway Memorial Hospital is now well under way, and that to build and fully equip this great humanitarian institution with its three thoroughly equipped buildings will be needed large means, to obtain which will require untiring and united effort; therefore be it

Resolved: 1. That we welcome the Commissioner to our churches and charges to present the work and to obtain funds, and that we pledge ourselves as pastors and laymen to lend all possible haste toward procuring means for the purpose of building, equipping, and endowing this sorely needed Christly enterprise.

2. That the following district leaders be appointed to coöperate with the commissioner, the presiding elders, the pastors, and laymen in the educative work and in raising all necessary funds: Clarksville District, J. W. Brandau; Columbia District, F. M. Massey; Dickson District, J. D. Luton; Fayetteville District, A. B. Wright; Franklin District, William Hughes; Gallatin District, J. MEMORIALS TO THE GENERAL CONFERENCE.

Your Committee on Memorials to the General Conference herewith presents its report.

Item 1. The Board of Education of the Tennessee Conference presented a memorial respecting the establishment of junior colleges, which, with slight explanatory amendments made by the committee, is as follows:

"Whereas the Discipline of our Church makes provision for three classes, and only three classes, of educational institutions in our Church; and whereas the Discipline makes it the duty of the Board of Education to classify all the educational institutions of the Church (which it has done, and has classified them as universities, colleges, and academies); and whereas there are a number of institutions of the Church which are neither universities, colleges, nor academies (but which give more study than the academy, but not as much study as the college); therefore be it

"Resolved, That the Tennessee Conference memorializes the General Conference to be held in May, 1914, to make provision for a fourth class of institutions which give as much as two years of standard college work, being higher than academies but lower than colleges, these institutions to be called junior colleges; but these junior colleges shall not have power to confer degrees."

We recommend the adoption of this memorial.

Item 2. The Board of Education of the Tennessee Conference presented a memorial concerning the raising of the educational standard for admission on trial into the traveling connection, which, with amendments made by the committee, is as follows:

"Whereas the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, strongly favors an educated ministry, and believes that from time to time the educational standards required of candidates for admission on trial into the traveling connection should be raised; and whereas during recent years the facilities for securing an education have greatly increased; and whereas our Methodist people, as well as the general public, are extensively and generously patronizing the schools, colleges, and universities of the country, and therefore desire an educated ministry; therefore be it

"Resolved, That the Tennessee Conference hereby memorializes the General Conference which is to be held in May, 1914, to take the necessary steps to gradually raise the standard of education for candidates for admission on trial, so that eventually there shall be required of such candidates a course of instruction equivalent to that established by the Board of Education for admission to the freshman class of an A-grade college."

Your committee recommends this memorial for adoption.

Item 3. The Franklin District Conference presented a memorial with respect to Conference collections, which, as amended by the committee, is as follows:

"Resolved, That the Tennessee Conference memorializes the General Conference to take such action as will make the board of stewards of each charge jointly and equally responsible with the pastor for the payment of Conference collections."

Your committee recommends this for adoption.

Item 4. The following memorial with respect to the rights of women of the Church was presented to your committee:

CONFERENCE MEMORIAL.

"Whereas the Discipline in Paragraphs 558, 580, and 592 recognizes woman's right to participate in these activities, but limits her privileges in the official bodies which review the work and plan for its larger development; therefore be it

"Resolved, That we, the members of the Tennessee Annual Conference, respectfully memorialize the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at its session in May, 1914, so to amend the Discipline that the rights and privileges of lay membership in the Church be granted equally to men and women without distinction of sex.

A. M. TRAWICK,
PAUL B. KERN,
F. M. MASSEY.
W. B. LOWRY,
GEORGE L. BEALE,
G. H. DETWILER."

This is approved and recommended for adoption by the committee.

Item 4 was noncurred in by the Conference.

Item 5. Your committee further recommend that we memorialize the General Conference to make the following changes in the Discipline of 1910 in respect to the trial and appeals of a traveling preacher:

Substitute for Paragraph 279 the following: "When a member of an Annual Conference has been suspended by a committee of investigation, this fact shall be certified to the bishop having charge of the Annual Conference of which the accused is a member, and it shall be the duty of the bishop within a reasonable time to proceed according to Paragraph 286."

Amend Paragraph 286 by inserting after the word "committee," which occurs at the bottom of page 145 and at the top of page 146, the following: "If the evidence in the case convinces the Committee of Trial that the conduct of the accused in connection with the matters covered by the charges germane thereto, or arising therefrom, has been of such character as to render him unworthy to be an itinerant Methodist preacher, the committee shall return that fact, and the accused shall on that ground, without reference to a specific statement in the bill of charges, be displaced from the ministry." The paragraph as thus amended will read: "286. Ans. 10. Every case to be tried shall be referred to a committee of not less than nine nor more than thirteen, who, in the presence of a bishop or a chairman, whom the President of the Conference shall appoint, and one or more of the Secretaries of the Conference, shall have full power to try the case; and their decision shall be final, save as to the right of appeal; provided, that the accused shall be allowed the right of peremptory challenge of five in constituting a committee of thirteen and of three in a committee of nine, besides the right of unlimited challenge for cause; and the validity of the cause shall be determined by the chairman of the committee. If the evidence in the case convinces the Committee of Trial that the conduct of the accused in connection with the matters covered by the charges germane thereto, or arising therefrom, has been of such character as to render him unworthy to be an itinerant Methodist preacher, the committee shall return that fact, and the accused shall on that ground, without reference to a specific statement in the bill of charges, be displaced from the ministry. The committee shall make a written report to the Conference and deliver to the Secretary the whole record of the case, with the decision rendered."

Strike out all of Paragraph 320-C as it now stands, and insert in lieu thereof the following: "320-C. When a case is called for hearing, the only grounds to which the committee can give attention are the grounds specifically excepted to in the conduct of the case before the Committee of Trial. The committee itself shall not have power to make up from the records errors of which the accused has not complained during the conduct of the trial before the Committee of Trial. The accused shall file a written statement of the errors complained of, and to which he has made exception, and of the reasons on which he relies, to show that these errors complained of are such errors as shall add to the reversal or remand of his case. The appellant shall, either by person or through his representative, make his argument without interruption, not going outside the record of the case. The representative of the Committee of Trial of the Annual Conference from which the appeal is taken shall then be permitted to respond, and the appellant may reply thereto. At the conclusion of such argument the committee shall consider the case privately and announce its decision to the respective parties. If necessary, the committee may take the case under advisement for such time as it may desire to properly examine the same, and notify the parties of the decision by letter if they are not present when the decision is rendered. If either party has no representative present, the committee shall appoint some representative for such party. The decision of such committee shall be final. Only where substantial injustice has been done the accused shall the decision of the Committee of Trial be remanded or reversed. The committee shall report its decision to the next General Conference for such disposition as the General Conference shall determine."

Respectfully submitted.

Report No. 2.

We submit herewith a communication from Rev. J. R. Stewart, Secretary of the Board of Trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, Custodian of the Superannuate Endowment Fund, showing the total assets nearly $350,000.

The check of John R. Stewart, Treasurer, etc., for $277.20 has been received by this Board as our share of the fund or dividend now for distribution, and which is carried by us to the fund for that purpose.

Respectfully submitted.

R. P. McCLAIN, Chairman;

J. F. TINNON, Secretary pro tem.

NASHVILLE, TENN., October 5, 1913.

To the Bishop and Members of the Tennessee Conference—Dear Fathers and Brethren:
We, the Board of Trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, Custodian of the Superannuate Endowment Fund, etc., submit for your consideration the following:

The fund has enjoyed an increased growth and period of prosperity since our last report to you. The cash receipts during the past fiscal year went beyond $45,000, an increase of several thousand dollars over the best receipts of any previous year. We have in loans in force at this time about $254,000, with additional cash assets which will bring our cash holdings up to approximately $270,000. Our total assets are in the neighborhood of $350,000.

The sum for disbursement to the several Annual Conferences this year is $8,175, which is the largest amount we have ever disbursed. Each year this amount grows larger. We have, included in the amount reported, annuities amounting to $33,275. This part of our work is growing—in fact, it is new—and we are emphasizing this department with encouraging success. Four of the larger Conferences and three of the smaller Conferences are yet without assessments for our fund. We hope these, at least some of them, will come in this year, and that at the coming General Conference some legislation will be enacted which will give our good work an impetus forward.

We desire to insist that the preachers, who are the helpers of every good cause among us, will lend their hearty coöperation for the growth of this work. Put us in correspondence with any who might be induced to make a bequest or pay to us an annuity fund, receiving interest on it during life.

A few words from a local preacher once resulted in the coming into this fund of more than $30,000. A pastor's coöperation will probably ultimate in our receiving as much or more in a case now pending.

Praying the divine blessing upon you in Conference session, we remain your obedient servants.

JOHN R. STEWART, Secretary.

MEMOIRS.

REV. GERVASE BROADNAX McPEAK, son of John and Nancy McPeak, was born May 17, 1837, in Crittenden County, Ark., eleven miles from Memphis, Tenn., and grew up there. He was married to Miss Elizabeth Jane Powell, of Fayette County, Tenn., January 21, 1858. She died in February, 1864, in Memphis, Tenn., and is buried there. He came to Middle Tennessee in May, 1864, and was married to Miss Lucy Ann Lannom, of Wilson County, in October, 1867. He professed religion at Fellowship Baptist Church, Rutherford County, in August, 1868; joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in September, 1868; was licensed to preach September 30, 1871; was local till October, 1878, when he was admitted on trial into the Tennessee Conference; was ordained deacon in 1875 by Bishop Wightman, and elder in 1879 by Bishops Paine and Doggett. He served charges as follows: Short Mountain and Smithville, 1878-79; Short Mountain, 1879-80; Cainsville, 1880-82; was unavoidably thrown out of work in 1882-83; Hickory Creek, 1883-87; Carthage, 1887-91; Alexandria and Liberty, 1891-92; Alexandria and Carthage, 1892-93; Hartsville, 1893-96; Liberty, 1896-97; College Grove, 1897-99; Fayetteville Circuit, 1899-1900; Christiana, 1900-02; Woodbury, 1902-04; Beech Grove and Olivet, 1904-05; October, 1905, superannuate. Few, if any, truer Christians ever held membership in the Tennessee Conference. A sincere seeker after truth and right, he was firm in his convictions and adherence to duty. There was nothing irksome to him in the Christian life or ministry. He loved to preach, and could be depended on to be in his pulpit at the appointed time well prepared with a solid, earnest gospel sermon. He loved to visit his flock. He was the first to report the Hickory Creek Circuit in full on assessments. His ambition was to do the best things in the best way. His clean speech and actions at all times betokened a clean heart and shone in his open, beaming countenance, helping to give, along with the Holy Spirit's power, that noble bearing that comes of conscious rectitude and erectness of character. One who knew well his inner life writes: "He was very conscientious. It always pained him when he heard of any one doing wrong or causing trouble in any way. A favorite saying with him was: 'The greatest troubles in this world could be avoided if every one would do right.'" His daughter paid this tribute: "He was a good father. If we fail to live right, it will not be any fault of his example or teaching, for he tried to train us right." He truly loved his family and laid them with himself at the Master's feet. It was pleasant to be in his home. His Christian wife and good-hearted children were glad to be kind to any one, especially a minister of Jesus. As a friend he was as true as steel. He was a Confederate soldier, a Mason, and was buried with Masonic honors. Heart trouble physically bowed the strong man toward the last. The friendly cane came to his aid. In his shut-in days he read his Bible, Church papers, and daily papers, was interested in life, and most of the time was cheerful. Sunday, January 12, 1913, brought a sudden attack. Medical and loving family attention availed not. Without a sigh or struggle the spirit fled to know in beatific vision the fullness of "Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God." He leaves, besides a devoted wife and daughter, Miss Laura, of Murfreesboro, Tenn., two sons (C. B. McPeak, Fort Worth, Tex., and Oscar McPeak, Birmingham, Ala.) and two daughters (Mrs. Mabel Newsom, Chattanooga, Tenn., and Mrs. May McWilliams, Huntsville, Ala.). This brief review comprises a few of the flowers that should be kept blooming for him for earth and heaven. Their fragrance will linger in the life of each one who knew him fully and judged him correctly. Among God's nobility in Evergreen Cemetery, Murfreesboro, Tenn., the body of this devoted husband and father, true soldier of his country and of the cross, faithful friend, rests, while his happy spirit lives in heaven.

T. L. MOODY.

THOMAS FOUNTAIN KELLUM, son of Rev. John L. and Fannie Hunt Kellum, was born February 15, 1877; and died January 31, 1913. When he was a child he heard the call of God, gave himself to the service of the Lord, and became a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Moved by the Holy Spirit to preach the gospel, he began to prepare himself for the great work, and was licensed in 1899. In the year of 1900 he was sent as a supply to the Overton Mission, Lebanon District. At Pulaski in 1901 he was received on trial into the Tennessee Conference and returned to the Overton Mission. Clifton and Duncan, Savannah District, next became his field of labor. After three years he was appointed preacher in charge at Lawrenceburg, Savannah District, and for three years went in and out before a people that he loved. Elkton and Bee Springs, Columbia District, had him as their pastor for four years. The last charge he served was Lynnville and Taylor's, Columbia District. He was ordained deacon at Murfreesboro on October 1, 1903, and elder on October 9, 1906, at Lebanon. On February 14, 1903, he was married to Miss Amelia Hatcher. Three bright little boys, with their mother, mourn the loss of a good father and a devoted husband. Thomas F. Kellum walked on the side of life where the sun shines. To every hand extended there was offered a grasp that was warm; for every ear that listened there was a cheerful word; before every open eye there was a friendly smile. Friends were drawn to him by the brightness of his disposition, and those inclined to look on the dark side were helped to see the error of their way. Brother Kellum was consecrated to the work of the ministry. He was devoted to his task. In his life was that which weds success. Step by step he moved in the estimation of the Conference till he gained for himself a position to be envied by his fellows. His father looked with laudable pride on the progress of his son. Having been deprived of early opportunities himself, he had tried to give them to his boy; and when he was assured that they had not been abused there was joy in his thankful heart. At Lynnville and Taylor's no preacher in charge had ever made a better beginning than Brother Kellum. Only a few times was he permitted to preach to those who were being drawn to him by the cords of his personality. Only for a limited time were the people allowed to express their love for their appreciated pastor. Few were the visits he could make to open doors and, departing, leave benedictions for the families. Only a few times did he point to Christ the irreligious ones whom he met upon the street or in homes where he had gone to bless. Lynnville and Taylor's loved him. He loved them and appreciated their kindness to him and to his family. Having preached Jesus and the resurrection when he was well, when he was strong God's servant at the gate of death was not alone. He told his faithful wife of his trust in God, and said that all was right if he had to die. The end came. Our good brother will answer no more at the calling of the Conference roll. At the request of his family the funeral service was conducted in the Methodist church at Lynnville, Tenn., by the writer, assisted by the following brethren: Rev. J. W. Hensley, Rev. J. K. Lee, Rev. T. C. Ragsdale, Rev. T. H. Hinson, Rev. R. J. Craig, and Mr. J. H. Stevenson. Other members of the Tennessee Conference were at the funeral. Many friends met at the cemetery at Pulaski and paid a last tribute to this servant of God.

W. V. JARRATT.

JEROME WINFORD.—The labors of Jerome Winford ended at Prospect, Tenn., May 14, 1913. He was born in Wilson County, Tenn., June 22, 1855. At the tender age of ten years he professed faith in Christ and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. When convinced that it was his duty to preach the word of God, he was given license by the Church, and very soon was found in the field of the public ministry. His early opportunities had been good, hence he was not handicapped, as many are, in the beginning of his work. God endowed his servant with a logical mind, and the talent was not buried. The ability to grasp a subject of thought was his to an extent beyond that which is usual. His appearance before a congregation meant preparation, and the people whom he served could always expect something on which their minds and hearts could feed. In him there was an earnestness that carried to conviction the willing hearer. Independence, sincerity, and a devotion to that which is just were among the leading characteristics of Brother Winford. He married Miss Louise Watkins, of Murfreesboro, Tenn. In October, 1891, he joined the Tennessee Conference. It is more than likely that he had not one day of perfect health since that time. Suffering was a part of his life. His poor hands trembled while he gave bread to those that were hungry. The wind always blew at the door of his tent. Pain made heavy lines on his face. The fingers of sorrow struck telling blows on the strings of his harp. His love for the ministry and his devotion to the Church of his choice enabled him to persevere as long as it was possible for him to go, and to preach as long as he could stand. Prospect and Pleasant Hill, Columbia District, Tennessee Conference, was his last charge. He knocked at the door of the heart of the people, and became a welcome guest. The bell that called the congregation to the house of God on the evening of the funeral echoed among the neighboring hills and told with pealing notes of the love they had for him. A flock without a shepherd met to think in unison of him who would lead them in and out no more. He had watched for the enemy and in love had given the alarm. Tears came from their hearts when they recalled what he in pain had done for them. Sorrow took hold of them when they realized that his lips, so used to bringing words, were closed in death, and that the light of his eyes had shone on them for the last time. I was beside Brother Winford when the sun was going down. These were his words: "Into the hands of the Lord I commend myself." Again he said: "And we shall be more like him." His wife and two children had gone on before him. Two daughters, Mecca and Mrs. James A. McGregor, of Lynnville, Tenn., are the remaining members of his family. Rev. J. I. Stockton, of the Missionary Baptist Church, Revs. John L. Kellum, W. H. Baird, and myself attended to the funeral. The body was carried to Lebanon. Rev. W. T. Haggard spoke in loving terms of his departed friend, and beautiful flowers covered another preacher's grave.

R. J. CRAIG.

REV. W. T. HART was received on trial into the Tennessee Conference at Columbia, Tenn., in 1885. He had already been for some years a useful local preacher. The session of the Tennessee Conference of 1885 was presided over by Bishop Wilson, who in 1882 had been promoted from the secretaryship of the Board of Missions to the chief superintendency of the Church. At Bishop Wilson's request Bishop McTyeire was present to add his wisdom and intimate acquaintance with the Tennessee Conference to the knowledge of the Senior Bishop among the four younger members of the Episcopal College. We have now passed on to a period twenty-eight years later in the history of the Church, where we can see clearly the new epoch upon which the Church was entering. Brother Hart brought to the duties and opportunities of the itinerant life a brave and willing spirit, although to him had been denied the mental discipline which he would gladly have undergone, and which would perhaps have given him the self-control that might have kept burning the light of reason amid the difficulties and sorrows in which, a score of years later, it suffered a sad and final eclipse. There were, however, some sixteen or eighteen years of devoted and fruitful service, in which were born into the Church under his ministry not a few precious spirits who shall shine as stars of glory in his crown of rejoicing in the eternal kingdom of our Lord. A brother who knew him well writes: "W. T. Hart was a man of independent thought and action. Sometimes this aggressiveness provoked opposition, but he never retreated in the face of opposing forces. One of his sons is a young man of promise, a member of our Church at Erin, and connected with a Houston County paper. Our hearts were saddened because of his mental affliction, which finally not only stopped his ministerial work, but forced his retreat to the home provided for such unfortunates, from which we believe he ascended to the Father's house." Naturally it occurred with him, as with many others in every walk of life, that growing eccentricities due to increasing maladjustment of intellectual balance were attributed to lack of moral integrity by some, and subjected him to cruel misapprehension, until the advance of his malady revealed the truth. After he was finally adjudged insane, there still burned the flame of loyalty to our Lord, although distorted by those delusions common to our unhappy brethren of his class. Auguste Comte, the great French mathematician and founder of Positivism, a religion containing the denial of personal immortality and the glorification of the faith that there is no God, barring an imaginary grand entrée, the sum of the influence of vanished generations, had himself suffered a "mental crisis," as the French euphemism puts it, to which we may attribute many of his religious and moral vagaries. Sir Isaac Newton was at one time similarly afflicted after a period of protracted and misdirected study of the book of Revelation. And within the bounds of our own Conference there lived that saintly man whom Asbury would have chosen as his colleague and successor, the latter years of whose life were passed in dolorous mental eclipse. For nearly two years I was Brother Hart's pastor, and preached to him weekly whenever his condition rendered it possible for him to attend services. If I failed to see him among the hundreds of patients and others filling the chapel, he was sure to reveal his presence by some ejaculation of devout rejoicing. Gradually, however, the cerebral disintegration rendered more and more lamentable and pronounced the dethronement of reason, and less and less frequent the times when it was possible for him to attend religious services. In the early days of last July there came upon Middle Tennessee a sweltering period of extremely high temperature that quite overcame him, and our dear brother was one of that numerous company that perished from overheating. To him death meant the release of the spirit from its thralldom for expression to the earthly mechanism of nerves and muscles, from its subordination to the foliations of the gray matter of the brain; and meant its translation into the Kingdom of Life not far from us, where essential personality comes finally into the possession of itself and of that which is its own. We shall look no more into his rugged and honest face, nor shall I hear again his pathetic appeal for that which it was impossible to grant him. But, O weary spirit, amidst the fogs and delusions that earthly conditions poured upon thee, I thank God through our Lord Jesus Christ, in whom thou didst trust, that thou art escaped into the brightness of the eternal day. A brief summary of Brother Hart's life is as follows: W. T. Hart was born in Montgomery County, Tenn., October 7, 1847. He professed religion and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in 1858. He was licensed to preach by T. L. Moody in 1875, and was ordained a deacon by Bishop McTyeire in 1884. He joined the Tennessee Conference in 1885 and served the following charges: Liberty Circuit, Dickson District, one year; Stewart Circuit, three years; Edgewood Circuit, one year; Mount Auburn, one year; Kedron Circuit, Franklin District, two years; Standing Rock Circuit, two years; Goodrich, two years; Hustburg, three years; Charlotte, one year; Fairfield Circuit, in the East Nashville District, one year; Greeneville and Martin Mission, one year. In 1903 he took a supernumerary relation and continued thus for two years. In 1905 he was put on the Roll of Honor and continued there till his death.

JOHN J. RANSOM.

JOHN OWEN BLANTON, son of Richard and Sarah Campbell Blanton, was born in Coffee County, Tenn., December 10, 1848; and was converted and joined the Church in the summer of 1868. He was admitted on trial into the Tennessee Conference October 4-9, 1871, and served charges as follows: Nolensville Circuit, 1871; Union (now Hermitage), 1872; Linden, 1873; Lawrenceburg, 1874; Bethlehem and Johnson Station, 1875; Ebenezer and Liberty, 1876; supernumerary, 1877; Sunday School Agent, 1878; supernumerary, 1879; Pisgah Circuit, 1880-81; Woodbury, 1882-83; Booneville, 1884; Manchester, 1885-88; Hillsboro, 1889-90; Sparta Station, 1891; Shelbyville Circuit, 1892-93; Tracy City, 1894-95; Decherd Mission, 1896-98; Normandy Mission, 1899-1900; Duck River, 1901-02; Chaplain State Prison, 1903-04; Normandy Mission, 1905; superannuated, 1906. Our acquaintance began in the late sixties at a revival at Neel Chapel, near Tullahoma, Tenn., in which Dr. John B. McFerrin had been preaching. This early acquaintance deepened through various relations these forty-five years. He was first married to Miss Leonora Saudek, daughter of Dr. Joseph Saudek, near Nashville, Tenn. She died July 4, 1880. Of this union were born two daughters—Willie, now Mrs. Robert W. Neel, Tullahoma, Tenn., and Miss Nora C. Blanton, near Nashville, Tenn., under whose kind care he closed his earthly life in the presence of all the children. On November 29, 1881, Brother Blanton was married to Mrs. Mary Bearden in the vicinity of the home of her father, Nimrod Burrow, near Shelbyville, Tenn. She died August 4, 1912. We laid her body tenderly to rest at old Pisgah, Bedford County, Tenn., where the writer had seen her happily converted in her girlhood, and near which place the ceremony which united her and Brother Blanton in marriage was pronounced. During the eleven years since her death Brother Blanton adjusted himself as best he could to life, his children, and the Church, going on in the strength and good cheer of that hope "which we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and which entereth into that within the veil; whither the forerunner is for us entered." (Heb. vi. 19, 20.) Of this last marriage were two daughters—Pearl, now Mrs. A. T. Peers, of New York City, and Josephine, now Mrs. W. E. Sweeny, of Jacksonville, Fla. During the interval between his conversion and his itinerancy Brother Blanton attended Cumberland University (Vanderbilt University not being in existence), studying to fit himself to be "a workman that needeth not to be ashamed" (2 Tim. ii. 15) in that gospel to the hopes and joys of which he clung through life's lights and shadows, unfaltering to the end. He had literary taste. A Hebrew Bible and lexicon which he used at Lebanon are in the writer's library. He was well informed and was a reader to the last. He delighted in the summer institutes at Vanderbilt University. He was quiet and unobtrusive, pleasing in manner in and out of the pulpit, and ready in conversation. There was nothing morose or censorious about him. He carried a brother's heart full of love for humanity and particularly for a friend, proving himself such as David found in Jonathan, abiding through any ordeal. For his sake and the Lord he loved, his family should have a large place in the hearts of his brethren of the Tennessee Conference and all lovers of Jesus and humanity. His eye of faith was clear. The visible and the invisible blended into a great reality in his personal experience. All his arrangements were made to dwell on whichever side of the river the Lord should say. Our Tennessee Conference never had a more loyal son in the gospel up to the time he breathed his last, on Sunday, July 30, 1913, at 9 P.M. His devoted Christian life has come our way and gone. As the sun, rising in the east, goes surely to the western passing, so he, on that "path . . . that shineth more and more unto the perfect day" (Prov. iv. 18), went to rest. We expect him to reappear in the eternal day. Till our time shall come let us cherish his memory, engirdling in loving embrace his life of faith and hope and love, arranging to overtake him. Meanwhile, under the words of our Lord, "If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honor" (John xii. 26), we shall be glad in the thought that he shares immortal honors.

T. L. MOODY.

GEORGE WASHINGTON TAYLOR, the subject of this memoir, the son of William Martin and Dyda Myra Taylor, was born on October 8, 1854, in Storey County, Nev. His parents removed with him to Tennessee when he was quite young, and he grew up under the clear blue sky and among the mountains and streams of this great old State. When twenty years of age he was happily converted, and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, on August 22, 1874. He was admitted on trial into the Tennessee Annual Conference on October 19, 1894, at Franklin, Tenn. Four other members of his class survive him in the Conference. He served the following charges as a supply before he was received on trial: Milton and Pisgah Circuits, two years; Sparta Circuit, one year. After he was received on trial he served the following charges: Sparta Circuit, 1894-96; Sugar Creek Mission, 1896-97; Waynesboro Circuit, 1897-98; Linden and Beardstown Circuit, 1898-1901; West Point Circuit, 1901-03; Fairfield Circuit, 1903-05; Wesley Circuit, 1905-07; Farmington Circuit, 1907-09; Marble Plains Circuit, 1909-11; Huntland Circuit, 1911-12; Bethel Circuit, 1912-13. During the last Conference at Nashville, Tenn., what had been thought was an ulcer in his mouth began to show signs of malignancy. In great anxiety we carried him to specialist after specialist, and faithfully tried the radium, X-ray, and serum treatments. He was sent by his brethren to an eminent specialist at Evansville, Ind., but nothing that was tried seemed to do him any good whatever. He rapidly grew worse, his severe sufferings increased, until he was forced to give up his work, Bethel Circuit, in March of this year. Everything that loving family, faithful friends, and devoted people could do was done, but no permanent relief was found. His decline from the day he gave up his work to the date of his death was rapid, and he peacefully passed away at the parsonage at Bethel, Tenn., on August 19, 1913. The writer had the honor of being Brother Taylor's presiding elder for two and a half years while he was pastor of the Marble Plains Circuit and the Huntland Circuit. He herewith testifies to his profound, unfeigned faith, his solid piety, his loyalty to the Church, and his fine pastoral and pulpit ability. He was always a welcome guest in the home, being an entertaining and instructive talker. He read much and sought to keep abreast of the day. As an expounder of scriptural truth he was very strong and clear. His statements and propositions fell from his lips like the blows of a sledge hammer, and he always said something that one could carry away with him and remember. A lady of his congregation remarked to me once: "I do not need the back of the pew to rest me while Brother Taylor preaches." As an old rifleman would say, "He always drove center" in his sermons and administration. He never sought the popular side, nor cared much for human applause. He did what he thought was right in the long run, whether it was popular or not, or however much of praise or blame it brought him. From several successful efforts he gained the reputation of being a church and parsonage builder. Every charge he served can show some substantial evidence of his skill and faithfulness along this line. If he found that a church of which he was pastor was built in the wrong place, and that future success depended on its being removed to a better or more central place, he moved it, suffering without complaint the abuse and malice which that sort of administration always brings down on a pastor's head. No dilapidated churches or parsonages were ever left behind him. They were always repaired, made more convenient and beautiful. Brother Taylor never ate idle bread. He simply could not be still. Because of his nervous and energetic temperament, he had to stir around, find something useful to do, and then throw the whole of his being into it. Nor could he always be content with the everyday humdrum of little customary duties. He worked at the mill of the eternal commonplace, but his eye soon sought out something to do that no one thought of doing before. By his efforts and skill alone he gave the great scope of wild, rough Marble Plains country a fine telephone system that binds it together to-day with silken cords of neighborliness. He gave Huntland its charter and helped it greatly in the organization and success of its high school. He was largely instrumental in bringing about its condition of law enforcement. He cheered on the young and urged them to make something of themselves. He blessed and comforted the aged and pointed them to the skies. He called the outbreking sinner to repentance in stentorian tones, and they heard him and came. He improved everything he ever touched and left no evil thing behind. Upon his good name there is no reproach of debt, nor stain of sin. He desired to live five years longer; for, said he, "I think I can do so much good now." When he saw that the end had indeed come, he submitted to the will of his Heavenly Father, set his house in order, and began to prepare for the last sad scene. With an unfaltering faith and great composure he calmly prepared to go. He indicated his desire for this writer to prepare his memoir, and named others for the duties they were to perform. His sufferings were great, intense; but they dampened not his joy, nor frightened him from his sure resting place. At noon on Tuesday, August 19, 1913, he peacefully fell on sleep in the arms of his Saviour and entered into the itinerant's sweet resting place. His funeral occurred the next day, being conducted by his presiding elder, Rev. R. J. Craig, assisted by Revs. T. C. Ragsdale, J. K. Lee, D. T. Reed, and W. L. Nelson. His body sleeps in a cemetery close by, and there amid his final labors awaits the call to life again. Peace to the ashes of my brave, faithful, and devoted friend! WILLIAM H. JOHNSTON.
